Decision on City's Future Pondered By Traffic Group

Has Choice of Taking Engineers' Advice or Suggesting Alternate

Should the city of Marion take the advice of an engineering firm it employed to help solve traffic congestion? A committee of six councilmen, five citizens and the safety-service director may answer this question tonight. Two million dollars in state money rides with the answer. The committee hopes to decide by tonight, or at the latest, Thursday night. It must decide soon if the wheels are to be set in motion in time for the city to receive state assistance.

An even more important stake, proponents of the engineers' recommendation feel, is the continued growth of the city and the business life of the downtown community.

Nearly everyone in Marion, and certainly all the members of the committee, believe something must be done about traffic congestion. But how to go about it engenders some debate. The traffic engineers employed by the city to find a solution recommended one-way streets and grade separation structures as the most economical and beneficial plan.

Others have suggested highway by-passes around the city, a thoroughway on the west side of town, elevating the railroads, or even relocating the railroads outside the city.

The engineering firm, Browne, Roberts and Associates, considered the more feasible of these alternate proposals in making its study of local traffic congestion, but rejected them in favor of one-way streets on the major thoroughfares.

opponents from some business firms on the affected streets.

THESE OPPONENTS say damages to their businesses will make the project's right-of-way and damage costs exorbitant.

Changing the grade of a street entails abutting property owners to damages, the amount being decided either by negotiation between the property owner and street builder, or by a jury. Under the Browne and Roberts plan, the change in grade for the underpass would begin at Center St. and run to George.

Steel Union, 11 Firms To Start Parleys

Industry Is Reported Still Standing Firm For Five-Year Pact

NEW YORK (AP) — The United Steelworkers Union followed up a strike authorization vote by starting negotiations today with 11 steel firms individually.

The union on Sunday halted joint talks with the big three—U. S. Steel, Bethlehem and Republic—on the ground they were getting "nowhere."

Union teams were slated to negotiate today with Pittsburgh, Steel, Inland Steel and Youngstown Sheet & Tube.

More Meetings Expected

It was possible meetings with other companies would be called before the day was over.

In any event, the union expected to have talks with all 11 firms by Wednesday.

Rounding out the 11 are Jones & Laughlin, Wheeling, Armco, Allegheny Ludlum and Great Lakes (a division of National Steel).

The 11 companies produce about 77 per cent of the nation's steel. All were understood to be standing firm for five-year contracts as proposed by the "Big Three."

Union negotiators were empowered to call a nationwide steel strike unless a contract agreement is reached by June 30, when present contracts expire.

The union's 170-member wage policy committee authorized the strike call Monday and then headed for home.

The committee warned that time is "growing short" for averting a walkout of 650,000 steelworkers in plants that turn out nine-tenths of the nation's steel.

Industry Stands Firm

But the industry stood firm against a union demand for a one-year contract with wage increases and fringe benefits.

The wage committee's statement came a day after the union broke off joint talks with the "Big Three"—U. S. Steel, Bethlehem and Republic—in favor of negotiating separately with each of them and eight other major steel firms.

Meanwhile, David J. McDonald, silver-haired president of the union, disputed the value the "Big Three" placed on their offer. The companies said the package proposal would amount to a 65-cent-an-hour increase in the fifth year, rising from 17 2-3 cents the first year.

"That's pure and unadulterated bunk," McDonald told a news conference. He said the union estimated the fifth year value at 23.2 cents.

Joseph L. Block, president of Inland, defended the "Big Three" proposal. He said it was "fair, generous and in the national interest."

The present wage average in the basic steel industry at $2.46 an hour. The union has asked a "substantial pay increase, a 52-week layoff pay program, premium pay for Saturday and Sunday work, a company-paid insurance program and other benefits."

Pastor Killed In Oklahoma By Hitchhiker

TAFT, Okla. (AP)—The body of a young Tulsa minister who liked to pick up hitchhikers to tell them about Christ was found today where an ex-convict said he dumped it.

Officers converged on this foothills area in search of the body of Tommie Robert Cooke, 24, after 27-year-old Edward Leon (Pete) Williams admitted he shot the minister.

Undersheriff Orville McCroskey of LeFlore County said that Williams admitted the slaying early today after he was arrested on a bus. Williams said Cooke had given him a ride.

The body was found while Williams was being brought to the scene to help searchers.

The victim was assistant pastor of the Glenwood Baptist Church at Tulsa.

He had been missing since leaving the church after the morning service Sunday.

The Rev. Dale Proctor, pastor of the church, said his young associate often picked up hitchhikers "and tried to tell them about Jesus Christ."

McCroskey said Williams told of shooting the minister. McCroskey quoted him as saying he forced Cooke to pull over to the side of the road near Taft and started to tie him with a belt, that the minister resisted so he shot him in the head with a .38.

Children Flock to City Playgrounds

THE SUMMER RECREATION program at Marion city playgrounds started this morning after being postponed one day because of rainy weather Monday. Some of the activities at two of the playgrounds are shown here.

LEFT: The playground at Pearl St. School no sooner opened than a group of boys organized into teams and with a shout of "batter up" started a softball game.

One Council Group Backs $20 Increase

Second Committee Holds Up Approval In Search for Funds

The question of a $20 a month pay raise for Marion police and firemen was very much up in the air today, despite an informal stamp of approval by City Council's municipal services committee.

After a meeting called Monday night by Safety-Service Director Guy Bigelow failed to produce full and immediate approval for the raise, Mr. Bigelow this morning criticized council's finance committee and particularly its chairman, Councilman-at-Large Robert G. Haldeman, for failure to grant the request.

"Mr. Haldeman is fully aware of the situation in both departments. There is no doubt that inadequate protection of the city will result from his action," Mr. Bigelow declared.

"It's time council stands on its own two feet and refuses to be dictated to by Mr. Haldeman, who after all is only one man," Mr. Bigelow added.

Approved by Committee

The municipal services committee gave its unanimous approval of the pay raise request at the meeting held last night, according to Mr. Bigelow.

The finance committee which Mr. Haldeman heads, however, held up approval pending a study of the availability of funds.

Richard Lister, a member of the municipal services committee, said he was the only one of the three members of the committee to attend the meeting. But he said he had talked to the committee chairman, Harold Smith, First Ward, and John Courtright Jr., at-large, and both had given their approval to the requested pay raise.

The request was made by Mr. Bigelow in a letter sent to the municipal services committee last week. In it, Mr. Bigelow asked that an immediate $20 a month raise be granted to all police and firemen as a measure of "temporary relief."

Disagreeing with Mr. Bigelow's statement today that Mr. Haldeman had flatly refused the proposed pay raises were Mr. Lister and Ralph Williams, Fourth Ward, a member of the finance committee.

Both said that Mr. Haldeman indicated that he felt the request should be studied further and that City Auditor Elmer Shaw should be given the opportunity to review city finances to determine if money is available for the raises.

Money for the pay raise is available in the sanitation department funds, according to Mr. Lister. He indicated that a surplus in this fund could be transferred to the general fund to cover the cost of the pay raise.

Russians Offer Huge Loan for Egyptian Dam

$1.12 Billion Deal; Nasser Delays Action On Soviet's Proposal

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—A source close to Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser said today the Soviet Union has offered to lend Egypt $1,120,000,000 to finance almost entirely the Aswan Dam.

The source said Nasser will not accept the offer "at present," pending a careful study.

The loan offer was reported made by Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov during talks with Nasser over the weekend. Shepilov is here to attend Egypt's three-day celebration of British evacuation of the Suez Canal Zone.

Britain and the United States have offered to give Egypt 70 million dollars to get the big dam on the Nile started, and later to lend 80 to 130 millions as work progresses. Tied in with this Western offer is the promise of a World Bank loan of 200 to 250 million dollars. Egypt would provide 760 millions worth of labor and local material.

Nasser has neither accepted nor rejected the Western offer. Russia previously had offered to lend the entire 400 million dollars. Egypt must have from foreign sources.

Works With Sherman Adams Ike Progresses, Spends Hour on Official Duties

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower, continuing good progress in recuperating from his operation, put in the better part of an hour today working on White House business.

In a session with his chief assistant, Sherman Adams, the President signed four bills passed by Congress. One, aimed to increase public library service available in rural areas, provides for a program of federal grants.

Booklet of Photographs

Before the meeting with Adams, the President received and chuckled over a booklet of photographs of his 8-year-old grandson, David, playing golf.

The booklet, a gift from the White House News Photographers Assn., was put together in the format of the usual golf instruction book with captions as though written by David. Actually, they were written by Henry Burroughs of the Associated Press.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty said the President got a big kick out of the gift and laughed heartily over it.

An 8 a.m. bulletin from Walter Reed Army Hospital said the recuperating President was continuing to progress satisfactorily.

The bulletin said:

"The President now is on a regular soft diet. His breakfast this morning was the same as yesterday except that he had a full glass of skim milk."

For breakfast Monday, and again this morning, the President had two soft boiled eggs, one slice of whole wheat toast with honey and a cup of tea. He had only a half glass of skim milk Monday.

Only Staff Scheduled

Only staff visitors were scheduled at the hospital today. Sherman Adams, Eisenhower's chief aide, was expected about mid-morning.

There still is no definite word, 10 days after his intestinal operation, on when he will be released from Walter Reed Army Hospital.

Probers Split In Inquiry on Nickel Project

Republicans Dispute Democrat Charges of 'Political Influence'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democrat House investigators today alleged "political and private influence" in a 43-million-dollar government nickel plant expansion project.

Republicans on the Government Operations Committee issued a "blanket rejection" of the charges. They accused the committee's Democratic majority of "an amazing suppression of evidence."

"Inconsistencies in the evidence," the report added, "warrant the conclusion that false testimony was given under oath." It recommended that the Justice Department determine whether it should start perjury prosecution.

The charges and denials were contained in a split report on a subcommittee inquiry early this year into contracts awarded in connection with expansion of a big nickel producing plant at Nicaro, Cuba.

Subcommittee chairman Jack Brooks (D-Tex.) accused the Justice Department of keeping secret some microfilm records of private files "which might well point to ward further irregularities in the expansion program."

The Justice Department has said and underpasses at some of the railroads.

While the engineering firm made several major recommendations, the joint council-citizens traffic committee has concerned itself primarily with the proposal to alleviate traffic tieups on the north-south highways through the city—Routes 23 and 4.

BROWNE AND Roberts recommended that traffic on these routes be split into one-way segments on State and Prospect Sts. between Walnut St. on the south and Klerx on the north; and that railroad underpasses be constructed under the Erie and New York Central tracks on State and Prospect.

The project also would involve widening of the affected segments of Walnut and Klerx, and resurfacing of Prospect and State.

In contrast to former years, one-way streets for the downtown area seem to have gained favor; it is the feeling of many thoughtful observers that they are inevitable as the number of motor vehicles multiplies.

But the proposal for underpasses on State and Prospect has met with natives the building of an underpass on Main St. and/or a throughway running along the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks on the west side of Marion. Proponents of the Browne and Roberts proposal come back with the assertion that, while the engineers' estimate for the right-of-way may be too low, the opponents' estimates probably are too high; and that in any event, the State Highway Department, which will do the negotiating for right-of-way, and damage claims, will drop the project if the costs become too high.

The proponents point out also that right-of-way and damage costs on the alternate proposals hardly would be less expensive; that Main St. property is valued more highly on the tax duplicates than that on Prospect and State; and that the west side thoroughway would necessitate razing of a number of new houses and relocating of business firms.

AS A CLINCHER in their arguments for the Browne and Roberts plan, the proponents point out that

Marion Resident Dies

Weekend Auto Crashes Claim 2 More Victims

Two weekend accidents on Marion area highways claimed their second and third victims Monday. One of the accidents had resulted in the death of a Cardington boy earlier.

That accident, which caused the death of Richard Dean Couts, 16, of near Cardington, occurred at 10 p.m. Sunday. It also caused the death Monday afternoon of Richard E. Smith, 27, of 460 Davids St., driver of the other car. He died in Marion General Hospital of the injuries he received in the mishap.

THE OTHER accident victim claimed Monday afternoon was Mrs. Lillie Bell Thomas, 88, of Marseilles, seriously injured in a four car pileup on Route 231 at Route 30-N in Wyandot County. Mrs. Thomas died in Wyandot Memorial Hospital in Upper Sandusky at 2:30 p.m. Monday.

According to state patrolmen from the Marion post who investigated the Couts-Smith accident Sunday night, a car driven by Mr. Smith and one driven by Gerald Couts, father of Richard, collided head-on on Route 95 just east of the Marion-Morrow County Line.

Richard Couts died at 12:30 a.m. Monday shortly after his admission to the hospital. His father, Gerald, 52, and mother, Margaret, 46, are both in "poor" condition today in the hospital. Another passenger in the Couts car, Joanne Pearl, 16, of Fulton, is listed in "satisfactory" condition at the hospital.

Mr. Smith suffered a fractured left leg, fractured skull, fractured jaw, fractured right shoulder and lacerations of the face and head, according to the patrol report.

Mrs. Thomas was a passenger in a car driven by her daughter, Mrs. Ruby Emptage, 64, of Marseilles when the accident happened Sunday afternoon.

STATE PATROLMEN from the Bucyrus post said Mrs. Emptage's car struck the rear of a car driven by Clarence Good, 49, of Lorain. Officers said Mr. Good had stopped behind two other autos at the intersection of Routes 231 and 30-N to allow traffic on 30-N to pass.

Mr. Good's car was pushed into the one in front of him which in turn was pushed into the first car, a state patrol car driven by Patrolman Stanley Smith, 30, of near Bucyrus, patrolmen said.

Both Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Emptage were taken to the Wyandot Memorial Hospital where Mrs. Emptage was treated for shock and bruises.

Mrs. Thomas received head and internal injuries and fractures of both wrists, investigating patrolmen said.

The Curl Funeral Home in Cardington said today that arrangements for the funeral of Richard Couts had been completed. They

Multi-Million Dollar Team Breaks Up

Martin and Lewis Plan Final Split Next Month

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Dean Martin, who wants to live like Bing Crosby, and Jerry Lewis, who wants to be a Charlie Chaplin, next month will formally end a multi-million-dollar partnership.

Ironically, the final split will come after completion of an Eastern night club tour originally planned to commemorate their 10th anniversary and their new picture "Pardners."

Final barrier to the split was removed Monday night when producer Hal Wallis, who first brought them into the movies, agreed to let each make a separate movie. As a team, they have been among the biggest box office attractions in movie industry.

Joseph Leary Named To Fill Barkley Post

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—Gov. A. B. Chandler Monday named Frankfort attorney Joseph J. Leary to the U. S. Senate as a temporary replacement for the late Sen. Alben Barkley.

The governor announced his choice on the eve of today's meeting of the Democratic State Central Executive Committee in Louisville. The committee will name its nominee to run in the November election for the four remaining years of Barkley's term. Barkley died April 30.

Leary, a close advisor of the governor, was appointed to serve until November. He was co-chairman of Chandler's campaign in last year's gubernatorial race. Chandler said he wouldn't "hazard a guess" about how his appointment of Leary would fit in with today's committee action.

2 Rival Slates Vie in Election At Girls' State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The 636 teenage girls attending Buckeye Girls State here elect a governor and legislative and judicial officials today.

Following primary elections to select one gubernatorial candidate each from the Federalist and Nationalist parties this morning, general elections were being held this afternoon.

The eight candidates for governor in the primary include: Judith Reeb, Columbus; Sharon Burns, Dayton; Peggy Reames, Russell's Point; and Marilyn Marsh, Beachwood, in the Nationalist primary. Federalists: Christine Mackey, Hillsboro; Kittie Kay Daland, New Madison; Mary Ellen Cunningham, New Matamoros, and Ann Bodi, Toledo.

Rain Monday failed to dampen the spirited politicking as the girls campaigned with parades and rallies.

The young aspirants are advocating governmental changes ranging from abolition of taxes on medicine to periodic auto driving tests for adult drivers.

The eight-day program, on the Capital University campus, is sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary.

Cadillac

Just Graduated...To a Cadillac!

It's graduation time! And this happy gentleman—appropriately enough—has just gone through some important graduation exercises of his own.

It was just a few minutes ago, in fact, that he stood in his dealer's showroom and accepted the keys to his first Cadillac car.

But even though he now holds his final degree, so to speak, in motor car ownership, his education in all the good things of motordom is only beginning.

Take performance, for instance. The car is so smooth and powerful, and so nimble and obedient that it automatically revises a man's standards of automotive performance.

Consider comfort. Rolling along the broadest boulevard or taking the roughest bylane, the car is incredibly smooth and level in ride.

And think about pride and satisfaction. What an extraordinary feeling it is to sit in command of the "car of cars"—and find yourself the subject of admiring glances on every hand.

Have you ever considered how wonderful it would be to "graduate" to Cadillac? If you have, then this is a marvelous time to make the move.

Certainly, it has never been easier to sign your name to the title. We are, happily, in a position to offer you prompt delivery on your favorite model—and we know you will be pleased to learn how practical Cadillac ownership has now become.

Why not stop in while the springtime is still with us—and spend an hour at the wheel?

It's a wonderful season and a wonderful car—and a wonderful opportunity to enjoy them both!

Socialists' Candidate Blasts Democrats, GOP

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—The Democrats and Republicans "in all essential respects look alike, talk alike and act alike," says Eric Haas of New York, the presidential candidate of the Socialist Labor party.

That makes them the siamese twins of capitalism, Haas told a state rally of the party at Ridgewood Park Sunday.

"They reflect in equal degree the corruption, hypocrisy and anarchy of capitalism," he declared. Haas advocated a Socialist Labor Party principle that the means of production "cease to be the property of capitalists and become the property of all."

He said the Communist states "hold down and exploit their workers for the benefit of a gang of despotic state bureaucrats."

Member of Dutch Underground Has Reunion With GI

WENATCHEE, Wash. (AP) — A smiling, dark-haired member of the World War II underground in Holland is realizing a 12-year dream—a reunion with one of the American fliers she sheltered from the Nazi invaders in her homeland.

She is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Richardson in the little rural farm community of Malaga.

When Richardson parachuted into the Netherlands from a crippled B-17 bomber 12 years ago, Nell Bolleman, then 28, hid him for five months in the big house where she lived with her mother and a servant in Drachten.

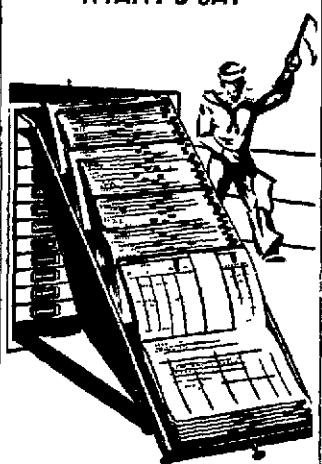

In all she helped 21 Allied airmen. She received a special citation from President Eisenhower "for gallant service."

Of all the fliers she helped, she says she has corresponded only with two in the intervening years—Richardson and Carl Spicer of Spencerville, Ohio. She has plans to visit only with the Richardsons on her present three-week visit to the United States.

Senators Back Boost in Funds For Air Force

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Democratic senators expressed confidence today the Senate will vote an extra $1,160,000,000 for long-range bombers and other Air Force spending.

The Senate Appropriations Committee voted 13-12 Monday to add that amount to the funds requested by President Eisenhower for the purpose as it completed action on a defense money bill raised to almost $35 billion dollars.

Some Democrats have contended the Eisenhower administration may be letting U.S. air power fall below Russia's.

The Senate will start debating the bill Thursday, but Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex) said he expects no voting before next Tuesday.

Asked if the committee decision could be sustained on the floor, Sen. Chavez (D-NM), chairman of the subcommittee which handled the bill, replied "Of course it will."

Sen. Russell D-Ga., chairman of the Armed Services Committee and a strong supporter of a bigger air force, said, "I am very hopeful this increase will be sustained in the Senate."

Two Fined in Court

Two men were fined a total of $45 and costs in Marion Municipal Court Monday on disorderly conduct charges.

Jack E. Davis, 26, of 232 Reed Ave. was fined $30 and costs and J. H. Hooper of the Snyder Hotel was fined $15 and costs. Both had been arrested by city police.

Air Force Spokesman Questioned

Intercontinental Missile Program Called 'Firm'

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force's research chief says this country has "a real firm program" for development of an intercontinental ballistic missile (ICBM).

This opinion came from Lt. Gen. Donald L. Putt, supervisor of all Air Force research programs. He is deputy chief of staff for development.

Putt was questioned May 17 at a closed door session of a Senate Armed Services subcommittee investigating relative U.S. and Russian air power. His testimony was made public today, after security censorship.

5,000-Mile Accuracy Sought

Often termed "the ultimate weapon," an intercontinental missile could carry a nuclear warhead from this country to Russia — or in the reverse direction — in a matter of minutes. The aim is to develop a rocket capable of traveling 5,000 miles — and dropping right on target.

The general's cautious optimism on the ICBM was coupled with sharp criticism of cuts in recent years in funds for Air Force research and development. He also cautioned that Soviet Russia might surpass this country soon in quality as well as numbers of new weapons and aircraft.

Sen. Symington (D-Mo), subcommittee chairman, asked the general about prospects for eventual development of an ICBM, saying:

"Do you believe it is going to be done?"

Schedule 'Realistic'

"I think it is a rather realistic schedule," Putt replied, "and the fact that we have met the milestones in the program to date would indicate that at least the early planning had been quite realistic, and I have no reasons to believe that, subject to the vicissitudes of not knowing exactly where we will wind up, that it is not a real firm program."

The censored version of Putt's testimony did not show what period of time was involved in the schedule Putt spoke of.

The general disclosed that more than one billion dollars had been earmarked for the ICBM project since 1954. He testified that the long-range missile was given overriding priority by the Air Force in 1954, and by the Defense Department in 1955.

John in Work Later

Later, he said, the Army and Navy joined in work on a shorter, intermediate range ballistic missile, and this he said was given

Senate Is Seen Hiking House Figure on Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) predicted today that a majority of the Senate's Democrats will support at least $2,400,000,000 for foreign military assistance "when the chips are down."

That figure would be 400 millions more than the two billions voted by the House, but 200 millions below that voted by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Humphrey is a member of the committee, which voted 13-2 Monday to recommend a $4,502,000,000 foreign aid bill. The figure is $703,000,000 more than the House allowed for military and economic assistance.

While Chairman George (D-Ga.) worked on a formal report to the Senate, Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson (Tex) said debate on the foreign aid bill would be put off until next week while the Senate takes up the big Defense Department appropriations bill.

Sponsor Sees Early Windup On Road Plans

CEDAR POINT, Ohio (AP)—Rep. George H. Fallon (D-ND), sponsor of a multi-billion dollar highway construction bill, predicts the federal highway program will be completed in less than the scheduled 13 years.

Fallon referred to the program as the "greatest construction project in history" as he addressed the 50th annual convention of the Ohio State Automobile Assn. Monday.

He said he expects the bill to be out of a Senate House conference committee this week and predicted approval of a compromise measure by both houses next week.

The association awarded plaques for top membership promotion to five local clubs, including that at Warren in the 4,000 to 10,000 members class. Barborton in the 2,000 to 4,000 class and Lodi in the under 2,000 class.

Expediter for Guided Missiles Claims U.S. Making Progress

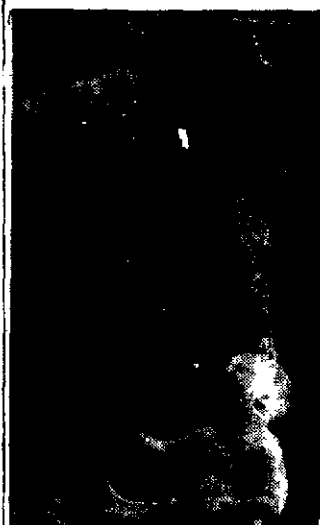

CLEVELAND (AP)—The man who guides the guided missile program of the Defense Department said here Monday night that the missile program has not suffered from lack of funds or administrative red tape.

Eger V. Murphree, appointed in April as special assistant for guided missiles in the Department of Defense, told the American Rocket Society, "The time it takes to solve technical and engineering problems" was the program's only limitation and that "rapid progress" is being made in developing intercontinental and intermediate range missiles.

The Navy already is operating a missile that can be launched from a bomber against targets far beyond the aircraft's range, Murphree said, and the Air Force soon will have a similar weapon.

The Navy's Petrel and the Air Force's Rascal, the missile chief said, "will permit a bomber to deliver highly effective payloads without the necessity of the bombers penetrating defense surrounding the target."

Murphree's assurance that neither money nor red tape were affecting the missile program adversely followed charges last week by Trevor Gardner, former assistant Air Force secretary, that the opposite was true.

The missiles chief also had an answer for congressional criticism of the Army's Nike anti-aircraft missile. He called it "very effective" and "the best surface-to-air missile we have right now."

The Navy's Talos missile, he said, "is not yet operational and should be compared with improvements now on the way for the Nike." He added:

"It seems to me that it is very comforting to have two such fine missiles under development."

Killed in Crash

SIDNEY, Ohio (AP)—The Sidney County sheriff's office said a 38-year-old man died early today when the car in which he was a passenger went out of control and crashed into a cement bridge on Ohio 47 just east of Port Jefferson.

The dead man was identified as Larue B. Richards, of Rt. 1 Maplewood Drive of the car John Joseph Pequinot, 26, of Jackson Center, escaped with minor injuries, the sheriff's office said.

C. of C. Discusses Treaties on Trade

Proposed multilateral trade agreements between the United States and other nations were discussed at a regular meeting of the board of directors of the Marion Chamber of Commerce Monday noon at Hotel Harding.

It was the second meeting at which the trade agreements were discussed. Some members of the group favored the proposed agreements while others opposed them. The Chamber of Commerce of the U.S. has pending a referendum issue on the matter.

The directors also reviewed the membership drive of last week and received a report that 90 members had been signed up and that 20 per cent of these were renewals while the rest were new members. Some reports are still pending from drive workers and it is expected that the total of members signed up will be over 100.

Also discussed were activities of the retail division and civic affairs committee of the chamber.

Gas Pact Ratified

CLEVELAND (AP)—City Council Monday night ratified an agreement granting East Ohio Gas Co. a 5 1/2 cent increase to $1 for the first 1,000 feet, 5 1/2 cents for each additional 1,000 cubic feet. Councilman Harry Jaffe proposed that the increase be limited to 3 cents but this was defeated 28 to 4. Jaffe and two others were on the negative side in the final 29 to 3 vote.

Uncertainty Curbs Spending

Cautious Iowa Farmers Watch Livestock Prices

By SAM DAWSON
DES MOINES (U)—"I'll lose money on the 80 cattle I'm fattening here in the lot. But maybe I'll make it back and more on the 45 on pasture across the road that I'll start feeding in here when these go to market."

Frank (Pete) Owen, who has a 238 acre "family farm" at Elk-hart, Iowa, 20 miles north of here, is one of many Iowa farmers who aren't hurting too bad now — although there are many less fortunate.

But Pete's skeptical about the recent turn for the better in farm prices.

"We'll be right back where we were by fall," he says. "This price rise won't last — there's just too much livestock in the United States for that."

to fall back on when the going got rough. He even had enough to give Mrs. Owen her dearest wish, an entirely remodeled kitchen, with equipment that would make most city folk green with envy.

Owen's 238 acres are now considered about the right size for a "family farm," but he rents 80 acres more down the road and says he could use even more to keep all his equipment busy.

With the aid of his hired hand and his 12-year-old son, Ronnie, "who can run a tractor as good as the hired man and I can," Pete finds use for two big tractors and a small one on his crops of corn, soybeans and oats. He also buys corn to feed the cattle and hogs he fattens for market.

MERCHANTS, bankers, farm organization officials here have their fingers crossed, too.

"The farmers have been hurt all right," says W. J. Goodwin, chairman of the Central National Bank and Trust. "But lots of them have had reserves to fall back on. Some who came in after the war and bought a lot of machinery on time have been hurt bad."

His son, Robert K. Goodwin, vice chairman of the bank, adds: "It will take time for Iowa farmers to get over the bad backlog of last winter and this spring. But it looks now as if they will make it — if they get the rains and a good crop this year."

Cleveland Union Protests Charges Of Discrimination

CLEVELAND (U)—Local 38 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers will wait until it is haled into Municipal Court before doing anything about a charge of racial discrimination, says its business agent, Vincent Skodis.

The Community Relations Board held late Monday the local, Skodis and its president, George J. Brown, discriminated against a Negro electrician solely because of his race and color.

In a recent hearing before the board it was testified that the Negro, Theodore Pinkston, 30, had trouble getting employment as an electrician because he could not obtain full membership in the union.

Skodis said "We feel we are not guilty. We will have to wait until the case gets to court. That is our only way to protest this and get out appeal."

The Community Relations Board acts under the provisions of the city's fair employment ordinance. Once it has found a union guilty of discrimination, it can order it to cease within 60 days. If the order is not followed, it can charge the union in Municipal Court with violating the fair employment ordinance.

The 12-member board, which includes two officials of other unions, reached a unanimous decision in the case.

"We should have gotten married sooner but Sam's an old fashioned boy," said Mrs. Sheppard. "He wanted to get all his old bills paid up first."

Crestline To Take Bids on Street Oil

CRESTLINE—Use of oil on unpaved streets in the village was discussed Monday night at the regular meeting of the Crestline Council. The members of council voted to advertise for bids on the oil and said they would need less than the 15,000 gallons used last year.

A resolution was passed which would include piping of oxygen into all rooms of the new Crestline Memorial Hospital in other plan changes approved at the last council meeting. The change is estimated to cost $4,261.

The council members decided to have the Ohio Edison Co. install a street light north of the corporation line on the Park Rd. extension.

After a discussion of the military service record of one of the local police officers, council decided his length of service entitled him to a two-week vacation.

Council also voted to buy a fire siren for the automobile of Fire Chief R. H. Saum. The siren is to remain part of the village fire equipment.

CRESTLINE—Use of oil on unpaved streets in the village was discussed Monday night at the regular meeting of the Crestline Council. The members of council voted to advertise for bids on the oil and said they would need less than the 15,000 gallons used last year.

A resolution was passed which would include piping of oxygen into all rooms of the new Crestline Memorial Hospital in other plan changes approved at the last council meeting. The change is estimated to cost $4,261.

The council members decided to have the Ohio Edison Co. install a street light north of the corporation line on the Park Rd. extension.

After a discussion of the military service record of one of the local police officers, council decided his length of service entitled him to a two-week vacation.

Council also voted to buy a fire siren for the automobile of Fire Chief R. H. Saum. The siren is to remain part of the village fire equipment.

Dizzy Diplomacy By George Sokolsky

Everybody comes up with ideas and there can be no objection to that if the ideas are of value. Thomas J. Watson of the International Business Machines Corporation put signs all over his factories and offices containing the single word, "Think." His employees were supposed to think, but what about? Were they to think about business machines, world problems, or the evil of taxes?

It would truly be wonderful if everybody had a mind like Aristotle's and could think out all sorts of problems, but even Aristotle got twisted when he tried to think in the biologic sciences about which he was more mythological than scientific. On the other hand, Einstein thought brilliantly in the natural sciences, but was a dud in the realm of politics and the American Constitution.

WHEN SOMEONE comes up with the idea of a people-to-people diplomacy and brings everything down to the simplicities of L'il Abner Yokum of Dogpatch, U.S.A., the prospect of confusion becomes increasingly great. Obviously thought can only be generated by knowledge and most of us know very little about the facts of life which make others seem to be so queer.

Why, for instance, are so many Italians Communists? And that bothers many Americans, some of whom thought that the best way to solve the problem would be to load Italy down with financial and military aid; then all Italians would be grateful to the United States and they would forthwith become capitalists.

In all this "thinking" about Italy, such thinkers forget that there were socialists objectionable to Italians there could never have been a Mussolini, who was a Socialist, the associate for many years of Angelica Balabanov.

THEY HAVE CALLED Mussolini a Fascist so long that they have forgotten that Fascism like Nazism was an offshoot of Hegelianism plus Marxism, and that the Italian people welcomed Mussolini's brand and lived under it for 21 years until Italy was defeated in war by American troops and then Mussolini was murdered.

It is probably correct to say that Mussolini was not murdered for having wrong ideas but for being defeated. The worst that can happen to a politician is to be defeated.

So, the thinkers worry about France and wonder why the French people seem not to give a tinker's damn about what happens to their country for which the Americans fought and bled in two wars.

The idea again was to pour hundreds of millions of dollars into France, to make France the capital of NATO, and to make up in American aid what the French people default in taxes. And then the French would all be pro-American. We now grow very angry with the French because they take our money but go awry in their own way just the same. They have no sense of gratitude.

WHAT WE SEEM to forget is that France has more or less been at war since 1789; that Napoleon built an empire on the bodies of dead Frenchmen; that Germany invaded France and occupied all of parts of France in 1870, 1914 and 1940; that France is now a battlefield between Soviet Russia and the United States and must, by any logic, be destroyed—physically destroyed—in the next war. The French do not care at all for what they see ahead of them. Also, the French had built a nest-egg for themselves in Morocco and Algeria and that just as the French were let down in French Indochina by their allies and associates, so they are now being let down by Great Britain and the United States in their "North African problems" because "colonialism" has become unpopular in the democratic countries.

SO THE AVERAGE Frenchman says that he hates war and taxes and all he wants is to be left to his own devices and that he can eat bread and cheese and drink wine under one fader as under another, meaning his own politicians.

No L'il Abner diplomacy, no pen friendships, no people-to-people propaganda will make very much difference as long as the prospect for the future is war and taxes.

The Frenchman says that he will be dead and buried before the politicians stop stealing and before peace comes to mankind. Therefore he wants to live while he is alive. It is an idea.

Morning's Mail By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK Things a Columnist might never know if he didn't read his mail: That in some European countries a bride by law must pass a cooking test before she can get married.

That it was Mark Twain who said, "It usually takes me three weeks to prepare a good impromptu speech."

That one chain of supermarkets, featuring Beethoven, as well as beans, is now selling long-playing classical records at 99 cents each. Rock'n'roll selections are available at the same price.

THAT, IF YOU FORGOT to give Dad a gift on Father's Day, you can still surprise him with a complete skin-diving set for a paltry $4,000. It includes a waterproof camera, rubber suit, floating knife and other necessities of underseas travel.

That there is now available a hearing aid weighing less than an ounce which men can wear as tie clasp or lapel pin and women as a brooch or necklace pendant.

That a timber expert estimates the porcupines are causing more damage than fires to the forests of southern Oregon.

That California mill workers recently found in the heart of a redwood tree a hoard of acorns deposited there by a squirrel sometime before Christopher Columbus discovered America.

THAT SOME OF THE old-time pirates made Boston's Brink's case bandits look almost like petty thieves. After one expedition against Spanish ships, Francis Drake presented Queen Elizabeth I of England with looted treasure valued at more than five million dollars.

That Samuel Goldwyn, the famous producer, was born Samuel Goldfish.

That in 1915 Goldwyn startled the movie world by paying operatic idol Geraldine Farrar the unheard-of sum of $20,000 to make three silent movies in eight weeks.

Last week pianist Victor Borge got $100,000 for a single hour on television—but at least you could hear him.

THAT BEFORE 1906 the only cosmetics used by most "nice ladies" in America were a little rice powder and a touch of cold cream. Rouge and lipstick were practically unknown.

That among the toiletries popular with women at the turn of the century were such genteel items as headache cologne, crushed violet smelling salts and wood violet tooth wash.

That America has 320,000 blind people.

That Phi Beta Kappa, the national academic honor society, was organized in—of all places—a tavern in Williamsburg, Va., in 1776. Later the tavern became a girls' seminary.

That the hobby of Robert Weede, star of the Broadway folk opera, "The Most Happy Felia," is raising flowers. His suburban garden has hundreds of varieties.

THAT MANY EXPERTS believe Adolph Hitler, 47, of San Antonio, Tex., is the greatest trick shot of all time. In 1907, using 10 Winchester .22 caliber rifles, he shot for 10 straight days at a total of 72,500 small wooden blocks tossed into the air—and missed hitting only 9!

That there are now about one million peacock bosses in U. S. industry, twice as many as in 1940.

That a lady reader, commenting on why women in America outlive men, writes: "One reason men dry up faster than women is that they spit too much. They dehydrate themselves physically, mentally and psychologically, poor slob."

Who knows? She may be right. I'll ask my doctor.

Ike's Group Studies Physical Fitness Youth in America Going To Pot? Parley Ponders

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Is American youth in danger of going to pot physically?

If so, what's to be done about it?

These were the two major questions facing the President's Conference on Fitness of American Youth today as it prepared to wind up a two-day session at the Naval Academy.

Many conferees seemed agreed that if youth has not already gone to pot it is in danger of doing so in this age of gadgetry unless something is done to counteract. Public Must Be Sold

What it will be remained to be decided. The best guess among 150 leaders in the fields of sport, education, medicine and other activities seemed to be that whatever the conference decides, it will take a jarring of public opinion to make it work.

This would pave the way for a national program stressing better fitness.

The conference delegates have come up with a variety of proposals in group discussions. Most have dealt with establishing a national council to encourage fitness among youths. Some others have called for teaching physical education and providing more supervised recreation in grade schools.

Community Level Start

Some have called for greater expenditure of federal and state funds for health activities. Most have agreed that whatever needs to be done should start on the community level.

Vice President Nixon, who started Monday's session rolling for President Eisenhower, said he did not expect to get a final answer but that if the conference can make a start it will have been worthwhile.

He tossed some statistics before the conferees:

"Less than 50 per cent of our boys and girls in high school have physical education."

"Ninety-one per cent of the nation's 150,000 elementary schools have no gymnasiums."

"Only 1,200 of our 17,000 communities in the United States have full-time recreation leadership."

Nearly Half Couldn't Swim

"Forty per cent of those persons entering the armed forces in World War II were unable to swim as far as 50 feet."

"Ninety per cent of the nation's elementary schools have less than the recommended five acres of land necessary for essential play areas."

"We are not a nation of softies but we could become one if proper attention is not given to the trend of our time... to make life easy and in so doing to reduce the opportunity for normal physical, health-giving exercise," Nixon said.

Divine Guidance To Be Sought At Site of First A-Bomb Blast

TRINITY SITE, N. M. (AP)—The inspiration of a "village priest" is going to bring men of all faiths to the site of the world's first atomic explosion—to seek divine guidance for peaceful use of nuclear energy.

On July 15, the eve of the 11th anniversary of the detonation of that bomb by American scientists, tri-faith religious services will be held on the spot where the first mushrooming atomic cloud arose.

New Era Begun

That pre-dawn flash above the desert landscape on July 16, 1945, was the start of the end of World War II and the beginning of a new phase in history.

In the following years, something bothered Father John Bory, an energetic young Franciscan priest and pastor of the Catholic church in Tularosa, a few miles from Trinity site.

"God has given man the ability to develop atomic energy," Father John said, "but, in all the years since that moment there has never been a single religious service at this memorable spot asking His assistance in aiding mankind."

Official Approval Given

The brown-cassocked Franciscan contacted officials at White Sands Proving Ground, which has jurisdiction over the first atomic bomb test site.

Today plans were announced for Catholic, Protestant and Jewish services to be held in the cool evening hours of July 15.

The rites will be in conjunction with the President's atom-for-peace plan.

No doubt about it, the Republicans will have some trouble working any suspense into their televised convention. But the Perry Como show is a pretty good one, even though everybody has at least some suspicion in advance as to who the star is going to be.

Tito Cements New Ties With Soviet Bosses

No Change in Stand Toward West, Says Yugoslav's Dictator

MOSCOW (AP)—Yugoslav President Tito and Russia's top leaders scheduled another Kremlin meeting today to add final touches to a joint communique outlining the new relationship between the Communist parties of their countries.

Tito indicated to reporters at a Yugoslav reception that the communique, to be released tonight, would make no provision for any formal Cominform-like grouping of the Soviet and Yugoslav parties.

"We are pretty much in agreement, not on the framework of a general organization, but on the basis of bilateral cooperation," he said.

Nothing Sensational

He told the newsmen not to expect anything sensational from the announced getting-together of the Yugoslav and Soviet Communist parties. He said the basis of the agreement would be on the same level as relations between the two countries, a relationship he has been careful to describe as one of consultation and cooperation between two independent equals.

Tito also said again there would be no change in Yugoslavia's relations with the West as a result of his talks here.

Tito also said he has not made any arrangements for military cooperation with the Soviet Union during his trip, and that no agreement had been reached on a future economic program between the two countries.

Bohlen Among Guests

Among the guests at the Yugoslav party was U. S. Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen, who had this comment after Soviet President Klement Voroshilov had proposed a toast to peace:

"I'll be glad to drink a toast to peace for after all, who would toast to war? But if peace is to be maintained, one must establish a basis for peace, and that is justice."

Tito came up at that moment and asked, "Are you suggesting someone here is against justice?" "I'm not suggesting anything," Bohlen replied. "I am only saying justice is necessary to peace."

Pay Hike

He said that the finance committee is holding out on the use of this money for pay raises because it wants to complete the payments on the newly purchased city garage on W. Center St. yet this year. He added that it was true that this would save some money in interest charges "but there are other obligations we must meet also."

The trend of the discussions last night by the finance committee was to approve a pay raise for the police and firemen but make it contingent on the approval by the voters in November of an operating tax levy, Mr. Lister said.

The thought was presented by Mr. Haldeman that if a tax levy were presented by the administration and approved by the voters, a $40 a month pay raise might be possible for the police and firemen, Mr. Lister said.

Those attending the meeting last night were: Mayor Gale D. Ireland, Mr. Bigelow, Mr. Shaw, Robert Wooley, deputy city auditor, Mr. Haldeman, Mr. Williams, Mr. Lister, and Herman Rinehart, Third Ward, finance committee member.

it is holding on to its files while it conducts its own study of the matter.

The three Republicans on the eight-man subcommittee demanded further hearings before any such "sweeping conclusions" as those in the report could be drawn. They spoke of "scantily evidence" and said the majority's findings "have not been properly substantiated."

Democratic Charges

The Democratic charges ranged from alleged loss of 6 1/2 million dollars worth of nickel output because of delays to "political favoritism." They also contained an implication of perjured testimony concerning what was termed a "lush brokerage fee" for a Chicago insurance agency headed by Republican friends of Edmund F. Mansure, then head of the General Services Administration. That agency had charge of the nickel project.

Mansure quit as GSA chief on Feb. 6, while the investigation was in progress. He said he wanted to leave because of "personal obligations," not because of the nickel investigation.

Half-Million in Fees

The inquiry dealt with an expansion project begun in 1954 with a construction subcontract held jointly by the Frederick Snare Corp. and Merritt-Chapman & Scott. It provided for a half-million dollars in fees for each firm.

Also involved was insurance brokerage on the project, two-thirds of which went to the Chicago firm of Balmer & Moore, William J. Balmer and Edward F. Moore, partners in that firm, are Cook County GOP leaders and acknowledged friends of Mansure.

The Republicans on the committee said the Democratic findings were based almost entirely on the testimony of only one man—Randall Cremer, a former executive vice president of the Snare Corp. and project manager at Nicar. Cremer said he thought Snare should have had the whole expansion subcontract, instead of just 50 per cent.

Key Figure Not Specified

The Democrats did not specify who may have played a decisive role in the award.

They recommended that "the GSA in the future award government contracts in such a manner that aspiring awarders will find no advantage in seeking the intervention of the White House or either of the major political parties."

They said Mansure wrote Sherman Adams, Eisenhower's top aide, asking for "helpful suggestions" about who should get the contract, and that Mansure also submitted a list of four or five potential contractors to Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall. The replies from Adams and Hall, if any, were not stated.

The Democrats said the Snare Corp. asked presidential secretary

Czechs and Poles Seek Trade With Latin Americans

VIENNA (NANA)—Polish and Czechoslovak economic experts have worked out a joint plan to step up trade relations with Latin American nations and replace western countries in that sphere, Communist sources here have revealed.

The plan calls for both Czechoslovakia and Poland to send trade missions to Latin American nations during the next few months in a bid to sell industrial goods and consumer products in exchange for raw materials.

Czechoslovakia, the sources said, exporting automobiles and motorcycles as well as other Czech goods, including textiles. Poland will concentrate on selling chemicals and chemical products.

During the current year, both Czechoslovakia and Poland hope to increase their trade with Latin America by 25 per cent.

Both nations plan to purchase almost 1,000,000 tons of sugar from Cuba this year to enable Cuba to buy goods in return.

Traffic Study

a west-side thoroughway, or a bypass route around the city, would draw off only about 15 per cent of the traffic, alleviating only slightly the present downtown traffic muddle, and, that in a few years when the number of vehicles has increased, the city will be in exactly the same position trafficwise as now.

The estimated cost of the Browne and Roberts plan for Routes 23 and 4 is about $2,500,000, of which the state would pay by far the largest share, making the proposal attractive to bargain-minded taxpayers. State assistance for construction on major thoroughfares in cities is based on a formula of the state paying 95 per cent of the construction costs, and 75 per cent of the right-of-way costs. Under this formula, the state would pay about $2,000,000 on the Browne and Roberts plan.

THE ESTIMATED cost of the west side thoroughway, which was one of the alternate routes studied and rejected by Browne and Roberts, is about a million dollars more than the recommended plan. Route 23 would swing westward to join Route 4 at the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks south of Marion.

The road would parallel the tracks coming into the city, necessitating the removal of a number of new houses and several business buildings, go down Park Blvd., and then swing up over the railroad tracks near Union Station by way of an overhead, returning then to ground level and following the Pennsylvania out of town to the north. In addition to the overhead bridge, the plan would involve two underpasses, one at the entrance and one at the exit to the city.

The engineering firm studied several other alternate plans, including by-passes, but rejected them because of their higher cost and less beneficial results on easing the downtown traffic crush.

It made other recommendations which the joint council - citizens committee has studied only briefly. A second major recommendation was that east-west traffic be split into one-way segments on Church and Center Sts. A third involved relocation of Route 95 down Bennett St. and Columbia, with an underpass on Columbia and a new roadway from the end of Columbia to Franklin and on to Mt. Vernon Ave.

The firm also suggested widening the underpass on Leader St. and building a new one on Silver. It made other suggestions calling for parking restrictor, and other changes to speed the traffic flow.

THE COMMITTEE, however, has limited its studies to the north-south proposal, and time may run out before the others are considered. It is the feeling of some of the committee members and other civic leaders that the various suggested projects can be tackled one at a time.

At its organizational meeting, the joint traffic committee set Thursday night as the deadline for coming up with a recommendation. This would give City Council time to study the proposal for one or two meetings before taking action.

If the committee should decide to recommend approval of the Browne and Roberts plan for Routes 23 and 4, council would have until July 18 to adopt a resolution to place a bond issue on the November ballot.

The bond issue proposal must be filed with the Marion County Board of Elections not later than Aug. 8, according to a spokesman in the office of Secretary of State Ted W. Brown.

But state laws also require that a city council or other local government body must pass a resolution of necessity for a bond issue at least 110 days prior to the election.

The county auditor's office must then certify the resolution by 100 days prior to the election and it must then be filed with elections board 90 days prior to the election or no later than Aug. 8.

If a do-it-yourself fan tried to make a lead pencil from the basic raw materials it would cost him about $50.

Party Leaders Speak Out

Republican Majority Is Convinced Ike Will Run

By The Associated Press

There was no word from President Eisenhower today on whether he still intends to seek re-election, but many Republicans apparently think he will.

Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) said today he expects Eisenhower to say there is no change in his plans about the time he gets out of the hospital.

Eisenhower remained in Walter Reed Army Hospital, recuperating from his June 9 intestinal surgery. An earlier medical forecast indicated he would be out of the hospital perhaps by Sunday.

Vice President Nixon saw Eisenhower Monday but told newsmen there was no political discussion. Later Nixon told an Annapolis, Md., audience Eisenhower would be out of the hospital soon "fit to carry the burdens of the hardest job in the world."

Going Ahead With Plans

Leonard Hall, Republican national chairman, told newsmen in Hartford, Conn., the GOP is going ahead with convention plans on the assumption Eisenhower will be the candidate.

Sen. Schoepel (R-Kan.) was among those who agreed. Schoepel also said he thinks Republicans have an "excellent chance" to regain control of the Senate this year.

Schoepel, chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, said he thought chances are good to pick up a Senate seat in Kentucky. He said Democrats are "disturbed" about the candidacy of Thurston B. Morton, who is opposing Sen. Clements (D-Ky.).

Gets Senate Post

In Kentucky, Democratic Gov. A. B. Chandler named Joseph J. Leary, 49, a Frankfort attorney, to the U. S. Senate seat vacated by the death of Sen. Alben Barkley.

Leary was named to serve until a successor to Barkley is elected in November. The term has four years to run. The Democratic State Central Committee was to select today its nominee to run in November.

On the Democratic presidential scene, Gov. Averell Harriman of New York got a boost from Frank E. McKinney, former Democratic national chairman.

McKinney predicted in Indianapolis that Harriman would be the Democratic nominee for president at the August convention in Chicago.

Adlai No. 1 in Illinois

In Chicago, an Associated Press poll of Illinois Democratic delegates to the convention showed Adlai Stevenson is the No. 1 choice among delegates who took part in the poll. Of the 78 polled, 37 delegates participated. Sen. Symington of Missouri had the most second-choice support.

Maine Republicans in a primary election picked Willis A. Trafton Jr., speaker of the Maine House, to oppose Gov. Edmund S. Muskie in the early September election. Muskie, first Democratic governor in the state in 20 years, was unopposed for renomination.

Ike

Neither was there any fresh comment from Eisenhower's press secretary James C. Hagerty on published reports that patients suffering from the President's ailment, ileitis, frequently suffer a recurrence of the intestinal inflammation despite surgery such as Eisenhower underwent.

Hagerty previously has referred to statements by Dr. Leonard D. Heaton, who operated on Eisenhower, and Dr. Berrill Crohn, discoverer of ileitis, that they do not expect a recurrence in Eisenhower's case. But he told a news conference he would ask the President's doctors about the possibility.

Hagerty declined to make the doctors themselves available to newsmen. And he voiced sharp resentment at a suggestion that questions addressed to the physicians might prove embarrassing to the White House.

"I resent that very much," he declared, adding he has been doing and will continue to do the best job he can to give the public the honest facts about the President's condition.

The exchange between Hagerty and several reporters had as its background the question, still unanswered, whether Eisenhower will reconsider his decision to seek a second term in view of his second illness in nine months.

The self-government plan is said to be based on the assumption that the Turkish minority's rights will have been permanently safeguarded within 10 years, perhaps by an agreement between Britain, Greece and Turkey which also would guarantee British use of the Cyprus military installations.

Violence continued on the island Monday night. Bombs were thrown at British personnel in three sections of the capital, Nicosia. There were no casualties.

Two young Greek Cypriots were sentenced to death in a Nicosia court Monday for the murder of a British Royal Air Force corporal May 16. A third defendant was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Cincinnati Is Host To Packinghouse Union Convention

CINCINNATI (AP)—The president of the United Packinghouse Workers opened the organization's national convention here Monday night with an attack on the Eisenhower administration.

President Ralph Helstein told 900 delegates he believes that "under such an administration, the threat to the working people of this country has reached unprecedented proportions."

Helstein urged delegates to approve merger with the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen which last week at a convention here unanimously approved the consolidation proposal.

The union president criticized the administration as "characterized by a millionaire cabinet, by the give-away of national resources to private interests, by a National Labor Relations Board dominated by representatives of employers handing down decision after decision changing established principles of collective bargaining, harassing labor unions and imposing ever additional restrictions on the rights of labor."

FORD sets 500-mile record at Indianapolis Speedway

Again proves nobody outperforms Ford

... dramatic demonstration of the kind of performance and roadability that makes all your driving more fun in a Ford!

A Ford V-8 hurtled across the brick and asphalt surface of tough and testing Indianapolis Speedway . . . whirling through the tight turns and flashing over the straight stretches . . . to set a mark that no stock car ever reached before!

Previous to Ford's record run, no other stock car had gone even one lap at Indianapolis at 100 m.p.h., but one of Ford's laps was timed at the electrifying speed of 113.7 m.p.h. And Ford averaged 107.126 m.p.h. for the full five hundred miles . . . close to the average set by the extremely costly, specially-built racer which won the Memorial Day "500!"

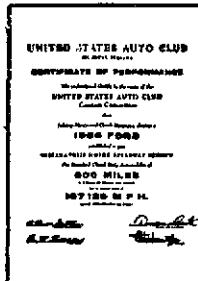

Ford fully realizes that the welter of claims and counter claims about "racing victories"

(many of them completely contradictory) must be confusing and disillusioning to the public. Ford ran this race against time, over the true "Classic" distance and at the most famous track in America, in order to dispel this cloud of doubt and disbelief and prove that no one outperforms Ford!

Peter de Paolo, leader of the team of drivers that piloted the winning Ford, states flatly: "No other stock car could have equalled this performance!" And Pete de Paolo should know, for he was the first driver to win the "500" Classic with a better than 100 m.p.h. average. And now he comes back with a group of drivers to establish a stock car record with the great '56 Ford!

Yet, this was no mere race against the stop watch. Ford's alert responsiveness and sheer roadability proved more than a match for the treacherous turns . . . taking them smoothly and giving the great Ford V-8 a chance to use its blazing acceleration in the straightaways.

Ford wrote this new mark large and bold in the record books. And the whole Ford did the trick. From the hood-full of throbbing horsepower to the road-hugging rear end, Ford demonstrated that it has what it takes to make your driving more enjoyable. Convince yourself that driving a Ford can be real fun. Test drive a '56 Ford. There's a set of keys waiting for you, so come in and see us soon.

Ford's record was timed and certified by the United States Auto Club

Baseball Players Unhurt in Crash

TIPTON, Ind. (AP)—Two men from Holland, Mich., died Monday night when their car and a bus carrying 18 members of the Kokomo Dodgers baseball team collided on U. S. 31, 30 miles north of Indianapolis.

Tipton County Sheriff Paul Grimm identified the victims as Bobby Seagraves, 20, and Arthur Olson McFarland, 21.

Paul Dudley Blue, 30, of Greenfield, Ind., driver of the bus suffered a broken foot. None of the players was hurt. The baseball team, a Brooklyn Dodger farm club, in the Class D professional Midwest League was returning from Paris, Ill.

Still Goes Along

DALLAS (AP)—Former Vice President John Nance Garner isn't going to miss out on any hunting trips even if his shooting eye isn't as good as it used to be.

State Highway Engineer DeWitt Greer, paying a recent visit to the 87-year-old Garner at Uvalde, said he asked:

"Do you still go hunting like you used to, Mr. Garner?"

"No, I still go along on the hunt, but I let the other fellows do the hunting," Garner told him. "Son, I can't see much farther than from here to you."

"I let the other boys do the hunting. I just drive the truck."

Redlegs Down Phillies in 10 Innings, Regain Top Spot in National League

Lawrence Notches Eighth Win 7-4 in Relief Chore

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Manager Birdie Tebbets, who learned to handle pitchers as a catcher, has his Cincinnati Redlegs back in the National League lead by using an off-beat pattern that makes starters out of relievers and relievers out of starters.

Birdie got the job done Monday night in a 7-4, 10-inning decision over the Philadelphia Phillies. He yanked Hal Jeffcoat out of the bullpen for a starting job, followed with ace reliever Buster Freeman and then wound up with unbeaten starter Brooks Lawrence, who won his eighth.

It was the second time Tebbets has used Jeffcoat, the ex-outfielder, as a starter. Both turn-arounds led to victories that pushed the Redlegs into first place. They moved back to the top Monday night as the Milwaukee Braves pushed the Pirates into second place, defeating them 3-2.

No other NL games were scheduled.

Yankees Retain Lead
In the American, the New York Yankees retained their 3½-game lead as Mickey Mantle sent his 25th home run rocketing out of Detroit's Briggs Stadium to beat the Tigers 7-4. Chicago's second-place White Sox defeated Baltimore 5-2 and Kansas City clipped Washington 4-3.

Jeffcoat's only other starting job this season was against the Phils June 7. He didn't last, but the Redlegs won it and took over first place. They gave up the top spot to the Pirates last Tuesday.

It's the second time this season the Reds have reached the top rung in a league scramble that today has the top teams separated by only a game and a half.

The Reds pushed across three runs in the tenth inning to top the Phillies Monday night.

Klu, Robinson Hit
The winning rally started when Ted Kluszewski and rookie Frank Robinson hit singles. After catcher Ed Bailey hit a sacrifice, Ray Jablonski was walked to load the bases.

A pop fly single by Roy McMillan brought home Jim Dyck who was running for Big Klu. Lawrence scored Robinson with a sacrifice fly and Johnny Temple singled home the final score.

Jeffcoat started rockily for the Reds, but settled down in the third through fifth innings, allowing only one Phillie to reach base.

He ran into trouble in the seventh inning when Philadelphia scored three of their four runs, and was replaced by Freeman. But the Phillies put another run over—their last—in the eighth and Lawrence took over in the ninth.

Jablonski Homers
The Reds put together two runs in the third, another in the fourth on Jablonski's 12th homer of the year. They spliced together singles by Robinson and Bailey plus a wild pitch for a tally in the eighth.

The second of the three games played at Philadelphia comes tonight with Johnny Klippstein slated to oppose Stu Miller on the mound.

The Pirates fell half a game behind as the Braves scored the winning run on Dick Groat's third-inning throwing error. Warren Spahn pitched an eight-hitter for his fifth victory. Jack Sheppard's two-run homer was the only weak moment for Spahn.

The Braves, who have won three straight for Haney since he replaced Charlie Grimm Saturday night after a miserable 5-12 slump got all their runs off Ron Kline, starting after two days' rest. Joe Adcock drove in two runs with a first-inning double.

Mantle's two-on, eighth-inning blast broke a 4-all tie. He picked a 2-1 pitch by Paul Foytack directly into the wind and off the grandstand roof (110 feet above the ground) in right field. The poke went over the 570-foot sign.

Ted Williams, as a Boston rookie in 1939, is the only other man ever to put one out of Briggs Stadium.

Twelve Ahead of Pace
Mantle's homer put him 12 games ahead of Babe Ruth's record 60 pace of 1927 and handed Don Larsen his fourth victory after ½ innings of three-hit ball in relief of Bob Turley.

Jim Wilson won his ninth of the season and fifth since moving to the White Sox from Baltimore last month by checking his former mates on seven hits. The Sox scored twice in the second off Bill Wight with a pair of infield outs after leading the bases. The clincher came off Mike Fornieles in the seventh.

Kansas City junked a three-game losing string and escaped the cellar with two unearned runs in the first and two in the sixth to overhaul a 3-2 Senator lead.

Americans Clinch Wightman Trophy

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—British tennis staged an autopsy today on America's latest Wightman Cup victory and decided the women's trophy still is as much a part of the U. S. scene as the Statue of Liberty.

The American team clinched the trophy Monday—backing its 3-0 lead Friday with two more victories to make the final tally, 5-2.

The young British team may well provide America with plenty of opposition next time—particularly from Angela Mortimer, the poker faced English star who downed the U. S. No. 2 player, Shirley Fry.

In singles encounters, the Americans' finer courtcraft and temperament appeared by far the biggest factor in giving them the edge.

Pitching
Warren Spahn, Braves—Tripped Pirates out of National League lead with an eight-hitter for his fifth victory 3-2, striking out seven and walking none.

Hitting
Mickey Mantle, Yankees—Became second man (Ted Williams was first) to send a home run out of Detroit's Briggs Stadium, poling his 25th of the season over the right field stands with two on to break 4-all tie and beat Tigers 7-4.

OUTLAWED BY BIG TEN COACHES. Roberta Gubbins, 30, of Birmingham, Mich., is the University of Michigan coed who can't shoot in Big Ten rifle competition anymore because she's a girl. It seems some men just don't like to be defeated by a girl. Big Ten rifle coaches voted against women competitors after Barbara placed seventh as Michigan team member.

Lemon Faces Bosox

Al Lopez Clinging to Hope Tribe Can Catch Yankees

CLEVELAND (AP)—Now 8½ months behind the league-leading New York Yankees, the Cleveland Indians tonight open a three-game series here trying to wrest third place from the Boston Red Sox.

The Tribe, with six losses and a tie in the last seven games, is on its longest losing streak since 1952, and only Manager Al Lopez holds much hope of overhauling the defending league champions.

"It's never hopeless," said Lopez. "When you have 99 games left, anything can happen. Why, you can make up eight games in a month, just as we did last year."

"We need a winning streak, and we're due for one."

It's true the Indians of 1955, by winning 19 against eight losses, gained eight full games on the Yanks between July 2 and July 30.

And others besides Lopez would agree that this year's Tribe might be able to play .700 ball for a month. The trouble is that last year's Cleveland hot streak coincided with a month in which the Yanks played around .400 ball. That was very unlike the New Yorkers, who have won 60 per cent or more of their league games every season since 1946.

The chance of another such month-long Yankee slump appears dim.

Or, to put it another way, if the Yankees play .500 ball the rest of the way, they will equal their last year's total of 96 won and 58 lost. To beat them, Lopez' club would have to win seven out of 10 the rest of the way.

Against Boston's Ike Delock (2-4), the Indians will pitch Bob Lemon (7-4). Hoping to add more left-handed batting power, Lopez will start Hal Naragon behind the plate instead of Jim Hegan.

Alan Luce, catcher from Farmington, Mich., will captain the 1957 Michigan State baseball team.

Cincinnati Signs 2 Hill Prospects

CINCINNATI (AP)—Officials of the pitching-conscious Cincinnati Redlegs didn't have far to travel Monday to sign up two bright young hurling prospects; both were right here in the city.

They are Bill Beck, 18-year-old right-hander, and southpaw Tom Flynn, 17, whose successes have been closely intertwined.

They were classmates at Cincinnati's Elder High School, and helped pitch their school to two straight state championships.

Last summer they worked on the mound for the Acme Glass-Postal Employees team of Cincinnati that won the national American Legion title.

Minner Hospitalized

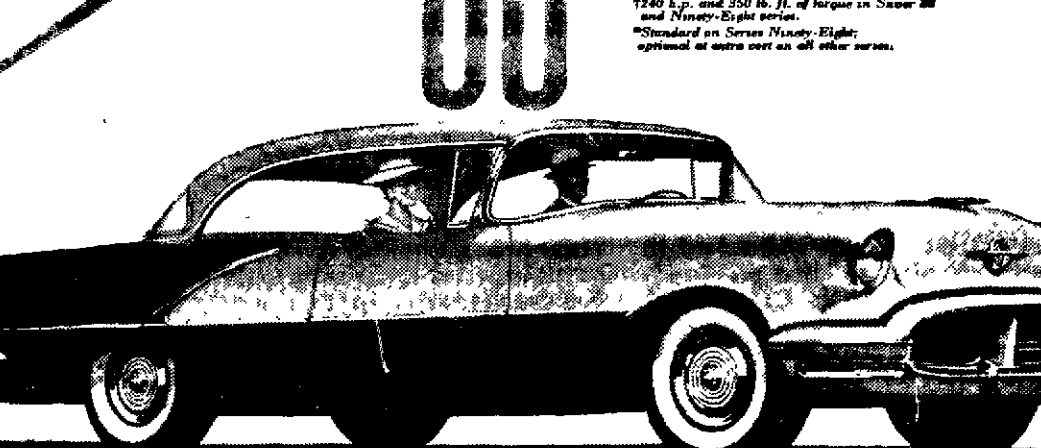

NEW YORK (AP)—Paul Minner, Chicago Cubs southpaw, remained in a hospital for observation today following a fall while taking a shower Monday in his hotel room.

The 32-year-old veteran, one of the Cubs' regular starting pitchers, suffered a slight concussion and an injured neck. Manager Stan Hack said Minner would be out "about 10 days or so."

Hits 'Bad' Pitch House's Chatter Has Little Effect on Mantle

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit catcher Frank House kept telling Mickey Mantle he'd never hit one out of the park with the strong wind blowing in. And the slugger is reminding constantly by Manager Casey Stengel and his coaches to quit swigging at bad balls.

If the New York Yankee strong boy had paid any attention at all, he would not have propelled a "bad ball" out of Briggs Stadium Monday.

15-Mile Wind
Only one ball ever traveled out of the stadium before the 24-year-old center fielder ripped into one of Paul Foylack's fast balls and sent it into a 15-mile-an-hour wind and over the right center field stands.

Hit from the left side of the plate, the blast came with two men on base in the eighth inning and broke a 4-4 tie. The Yankees won 7-4.

In 1939, a rookie named Ted Williams cracked one over the stands down the line in right. Mantle's blast was much more impressive, and much longer.

House said Mantle hit "a fast ball a little inside and up around his shoulders."

"It wasn't a fit pitch to hit," he added.

House chattered at Mantle every time the Yankee slugger came to bat. Said House:

"I kept telling him, 'Mickey, you ain't gonna hit one out of here today; that wind coming in from right field is just too much for you.'"

Retired 3 Times
House said Mantle "muttered something, but I never could tell what it was."

Mantle failed to get a ball out of the infield in his first three trips. He grounded to first in the opening inning, struck out swinging in the third and popped to shortstop in the fifth.

Hockey Aces Swapped

The home run was his 25th of the season and put him a dozen games ahead of Babe Ruth's pace when Ruth hit a record 60 for the Yankees.

His three runs batted in gave him 62 for the season, tops in the American League. He leads the league in four other hitting departments — batting, home runs, runs scored and runs batted in.

tion Monday night at the local Little League Field.

The Bankers downed Mac's Trading Post 10-5 after Isaly had disposed of National City Bank 4-1.

Jack McGraw threw a three-hitter at Mac's and coasted to victory behind four markers by County Bank in the opening frame, three in the second and three more in the third.

McGraw, touched for one run in the first and four in the fourth on only one hit, fanned eight and walked the same number.

The winners batted out seven hits, all in the first three frames, against Mac pitching. Ronald Cranston was the Mac hurler. He struck out three and walked three. Keith McFann and Larry Sims both cracked homers for the winners. McFann collected three hits in all while Sims and Ernest Robinson both had two. Billy Davis had two to Mac's.

A three-run third and Ricky Ishida's two-hit hurling paced Isaly to its fifth victory in the opener.

The three markers in the third were scored on five hits and the winners concluded their scoring with one in the sixth. Ishida blanked the losers without a hit until the final frame when Roger Graff and Terry Cudd garnered hits with one away for National City's lone tally.

Ishida fanned eight and walked four. Jim Cooper, on the hill for National City allowed eight hits, whiffed eight and walked three. Ishida and Gus Smith paced the Isaly hitting attack with two hits apiece.

MOVES UP. Into the manager's chair of the Milwaukee Braves goes Fred Haney, who stepped up from his coaching position Saturday after Charley Grimm resigned. The Braves won the first three games for Haney.

Second-place Clark Metal handed the loop pace setters their initial loss by a 9-5 count. VFW moved out of the league cellar with an 8-2 verdict over G & G Homes in the opener.

Rocky Evans, behind a six-run fourth frame, whipped the Alloy minis on a five-hitter. Evans whiffed 17 Alloy batters and walked only one.

Clark's six-run rally in the fourth, on only two hits, was sandwiched between two tallies in the first and one in the fifth. Alloy's scoring consisted of single runs in the second and third, two in the fourth and one in the fifth.

Jim Moody and Stan Larkin hurried for the losers, giving up five hits, fanning 11 and walking four.

Evans and Doug Bailey both had two hits for Clark while Phil Reid had two for Alloy.

Scoring six runs in the first two frames, VFW went on to down G & G Homes behind Joe Ansley for its third victory.

Three runs in the first, three in the second and two in the fifth constituted VFW's scoring as Ansley threw a three-hitter at G & G. Ansley fanned four and walked two while holding G & G to single runs in the second and third innings.

The winners batted out nine hits off Larry Kirby and Bill Dixon of the losers. They struck out three, walked six and hit a batter. Harry Traugh had two hits including a double for the winners.

Soil Bank May Draw Up to 15 Million Acres

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department estimated today that from 8 to 15 million acres of land normally planted to major surplus crops will be placed under the new soil bank program this year.

For taking the land out of production, the farmers will get payments ranging from $4 to $365 an acre under the program, which is designed to eliminate surpluses of cotton, wheat, corn, peanuts, rice and tobacco.

The soil bank program, which was authorized by a new farm measure enacted late last month, offers up to $1,200,000,000 a year through 1959 for reducing plantings of surplus crops and for applying conservation practices to idled acres.

One estimate is that Americans own 28,600,000 musical instruments.

First Round Ends

Trinity Retains Perfect Mark, Defeats Brethren

Trinity wound up as first round champs of the Church League by whipping Church of the Brethren 8-6 for its sixth straight win Monday night at Garfield Park.

Runnerup St. Mary, one-game off the pace, retained on Trinity's heels with a 12-5 triumph over Central Christian. The remaining contest saw Salem EUB whitewash Lee St. Presbyterian in a five-inning contest 10-0.

Three markers in the top of the seventh enabled Trinity to preserve its undefeated rating against Church of the Brethren.

THE WINNERS scored twice in the first on an error, and Bob Schmelker's home run, then added single tallies in the second, third and fourth frames on hits by Dick Mulvaine, Ken Mull, Bob McCrory, Bob Weston and Gene Mull.

Three runs in the third on a hit by Garrison, a sacrifice, a walk and two errors and three more in the fifth on hits by Garrison and Crabtree, a walk and Trinity miscues gave the losers a 6-5 advantage. Trinity clinched it in the seventh when Weston, Dick Gherman and G. Mull banged out hits. Mull's was a round tripper.

The winners collected 10 hits off Garrison on their way to the victory while Gherman and England held the losers to five hits. Mulvaine, McCrory, Weston and Gene Mull all had two hits for Trinity.

Five runs in the opening frame started St. Mary on its way and the winners added three in the third and four in the fourth to trim Central Christian.

St. Mary's big first resulted from hits by Nicolosi, Rizzo, Shoemaker and Moran's homer, and a pair of walks. Hits by Norris, Bill Lavender and Bill Lavender Jr., a sacrifice and a walk produced three more in the third. The final four in the fourth came across on hits by Nicolosi, Rizzo and Richards and a base on balls.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN netted two in the second on a hit by Schaffer and St. Mary errors, and three in the third on hits by LaRousse, Mishler and Schaffer, an error and a fielder's choice.

Steve Norris held the losers to six hits while his mates backed him up with a 12-hit attack off Ray Silvers.

in the middle game. The winners also came up with a five-run outburst in the first, scored four times in the third and once in the fifth to end it.

Hits by Smith, Yake, Thomas, Mateer and Meister and a walk netted Salem's five opening frame tallies. Four in the third were produced by bingles by Kelly, Smith, Meister, Yake and Thomas, and an error accounted for the final two walks. Three free passes and run.

Tumbleson, Graff and Strickland toiled for the losers yielding 10 hits.

Patterson Gets Cheering News From Goldman

NEW YORK (AP)—Heavyweight contender Floyd Patterson, who is hoping his injured right hand will heal fast enough so that he can fight Archie Moore for the heavyweight title in September, heard some encouraging news today.

The reassuring word came from Charley Goldman, the veteran, trainer of retired heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano.

Goldman told Patterson and Manager Gus D'Amato that Rocky had suffered an almost identical injury to his right hand early in his career and fought three months and one week later.

If the 21-year-old Patterson has the same good luck, he will be able to go through with the title fight with Moore in Yankee Stadium in late September.

Patterson broke the metacarpal bone of his fourth finger—the one next to the pinkie—in outpointing Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson at the Garden June 8. The metacarpal is the bone behind the knuckle.

Doctors have differed as to how long it will take to heal. Floyd's hand is in a cast now.

Slain Police Chief's Wife Says He Drank and Mistreated Her

CLEVELAND (AP)—A pregnant mother who shot and killed her police chief husband described him today as a hard-drinking man who used subtle tortures to bend her to his will.

"He was very smart about beating me," said Mrs. Kathryn Trooper, 25, in an interview at county jail. "He would tell me in advance he could do it so it wouldn't show my face and neck and choked me."

She said the beatings by Ray S. Trooper, 28, Lyndhurst police chief, were over little things such as when "I had used some ground meat to make chili instead of making it into patties."

"When he wasn't drinking, he was sullen and didn't want to be bothered by me or our son, Michael. He often left us without food in the house, and he handled all the money."

"When he had a few drinks and wanted to argue he said I wasn't a very good mother to the boy, and then he would swear and hit me, sometimes in the stomach, around the body, where he said it wouldn't show and no one would know."

A month before the shooting, she said, she filed suit for alimony and separate maintenance, with support for the 4-year-old boy.

"He threatened to kill me if I didn't drop the action," she said.

It was the son, Michael, who brought the matter to a climax, she said.

Trooper had been drinking and "he wanted Michael," the mother said. "I was afraid so I put Mike in a closet. Then we argued and he struck me several times."

She bowed her head and admitted to the reporters that she shot her husband during the argument last Friday. But she insisted she meant only to scare him.

The case will go to the grand jury for action. A preliminary hearing has been bypassed.

Buffalo Rallies For 5-3 Win Over Columbus

By The Associated Press
Harry (Peanuts) Lowrey, the little outfielder who did some Grade A pinch hitting in the wind-up years of his major league career, is still at it in his new role as coach and utility man for the International League's Buffalo Bisons.

Lowrey, now in his 20th year in organized baseball, stirred up a rally Monday night that enabled the Bisons to beat the Columbus Jets for the first time in six meetings of the clubs this season. With his team behind 3-0, Lowrey stepped to the plate leading off the sixth inning as a pinch hitter and touched off the spark with a single to left. By the time the side had been retired, eleven Bisons had batted and 5 had scored.

Veteran Joe Coleman, another ex big-leaguer, handed out the Jets in relief the rest of the way and when it was over, Buffalo had a 5-3 victory.

Havana went 10 innings to defeat Toronto, 4-3, in the only other game played.

The only other game scheduled Monday night, Rochester at Richmond, was postponed because of rain.

Dope control experts say narcotic addiction is increasing in the United States, but declining in the United Kingdom, France and Italy.

Two Babies Found Starved to Death In New York City

NEW YORK (AP)—The bodies of two infants who apparently starved to death were found in an East Side tenement Monday.

The 2-year-old girl and 8-month-old boy evidently had been left alone when their mother was placed in a psychiatric ward eight days ago.

A social worker on a routine check found the bodies.

Police said the mother, Mrs. Anastasia Velez, 32, was arrested when she angrily kicked in a window after being thrown out of a tavern.

She was taken to Bellevue Hospital for observation and has been there since. Police said records showed "no known relatives and address unknown" for the woman.

Police said Mrs. Velez was separated from her husband, Jose, 39, in February. The husband, they added, was believed staying with his parents somewhere in New Jersey.

The couple came here from Puerto Rico eight years ago and had been on relief since August 1953.

'Tender Trap' At Playhouse

WORTHINGTON — The enviable dilemmas of a gay and highly eligible bachelor whose state of unwedded bliss is constantly threatened by a procession of attractive and self-supporting career-girls with matrimony in their scheming minds, form the basis of the comedy, "The Tender Trap," which begins a six-night engagement at Playhouse-on-the-Green on Monday, June 25.

Starring in the play are Joel Thomas, Sally Kemp, Greta Markson, Alan Coates, and Victor Thorley. Thomas portrays a settled husband who, on a business visit to New York, finds that an old schoolchum (played by Coates) now living there as a bachelor, is leading a merry Don Juan-like existence merely by answering his doorbell.

The play is the first collaboration of two men who have each separately achieved best-seller status with humorous novels — Max Shulman and Robert Paul Smith.

"Wedding Breakfast" starring Joel Thomas, Sally Kemp, Greta Markson, and Alan Coates is playing at Playhouse-on-the-Green through Saturday.

Tickets for all performances are on sale daily at the theater box office. The theater is located just north of Worthington.

Ceremony Set Thursday for Nurses Aides

Eighteen student nurses aides will be "graduated" in special ceremonies at Marion General Hospital at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Speaker for the event will be Dr. F. G. Smith, staff chairman for the student nurses aide course at the hospital.

Certificates noting that each of girls has successfully completed the course will be given to them by Mrs. Virginia Evans, instructor at the hospital.

There also will be an invocation given by Very Rev. William J. Spickerman and a benediction by Rev. Lynn H. Harris.

The class also will give, in unison, the nurse aide pledge during a part of the ceremony.

Those in the 1956 class are:

Seek Marbles Crown

ASBURY PARK, N. J. (AP)—Billy Beclard of Niles, Ohio, shared the lead with Ray Stanley of Roanoke, Va., last year's southern champion, in the opening round of the national marbles championship Friday.

Both boys won nine out of ten games in their individual league competition.

Vieta Ward of Cleveland, Ohio, leads in the girls' division with nine victories and one defeat.

WINNING HAIR STYLE. One of the features at the German Hairdressers Show in Frankfurt was the open style or fantasy event. The one on this young lady was judged the winner. It was nicknamed "Frog King."

Officers Selected By Dairymen in Northeastern Ohio

HARTVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Some 300 dairy farmers from 16 Northeastern Ohio communities met in the high school of this Stark County village Monday night to reorganize the Ohio Dairymen's Bargaining Assn.

The ODBA was loosely organized earlier this year to spearhead an effort to boost the price farmers received for fluid milk. Federal action brought price increases to farmers while the group still was seeking to win recognition from milk handlers as a bargaining agent.

Joseph Brown of Jefferson, Ashtabula County, who has been the leader of the ODBA, was elected president Monday night.

Other counties represented included Holmes, Summit, Medina, Huron, Lake, Columbiana, Geauga, Mahoning, Trumbull, Tuscarawas, Carroll, Stark, Wayne and Portage.

Paul M. Perkins of Canton, lawyer for the ODBA, said organizational meetings would be held in about 25 northeastern Ohio counties.

Northeastern Ohio Methodist Conference Meets at Lakeside

LAKEVILLE, Ohio (AP)—The Northeast Ohio Methodist Conference of 761 churches opened a six-day annual meeting here today with more than 1,000 ministers and lay delegates attending from seven districts.

Akron, Cambridge, Canton, Cleveland, Mansfield, Norwalk, and Steubenville district superintendents present their annual report through Dr. T. C. Mayer, Steubenville superintendent, and the general conference report will be made by Dr. Oscar T. Olson of Cleveland's Epworth-Euclid Church.

Following today's business sessions, Dr. Allen Walker of Melbourne, Australia, will give the first of four evening sermons.

Ministerial appointments will be announced Saturday evening, and the conference will end with ordination services Sunday afternoon at which Bishop Titus Lowe, retired, of Indianapolis will speak.

Pinball Machine Operators' Suit Is Ousted at Toledo

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A suit by 38 pinball machine owners to enjoin the city of Toledo from making display or possession of the machines illegal after July 1 was dismissed Monday by Common Pleas Judge Tom D. Stahl.

The judge upheld the city's contention that the pinball machine owners, at this time, had no cause for complaint unless the machines described in their suit actually were gambling devices.

The city ordinance to take effect July 1 is almost identical with a Cincinnati ordinance recently upheld by the Ohio Supreme Court.

Ontario has a quarter of Canada's railroad-track mileage.

4-H Club News

The next meeting of the Harpster Producers will be held July 10 at 7 p.m. At the last meeting, June 12, the members played a softball game. Discussion was also held on a tour, a party and a parents' night program. Dates for these events will be set later. Refreshments were served by Diana and Ted Gottfried and David Brewer.

Heads Bureau of Mines

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower Monday nominated Harling J. Ankeny, now safety director of the Bituminous Coal Operators Assn., to be chief of the Bureau of Mines.

Ankeny, 55-year-old Republican would succeed John J. Forbes, who has retired. The nomination is subject to Senate confirmation.
